With celebrations and parties taking place up and down the UK, the demand for temporary staff has significantly risen.

From street parties and gatherings, to longer licensing hours for pubs and

So, if you're facing a dilemma wondering if you've enough hands to help, why not give us a call, as we only supply temporary staff that are 'fit for a King'.

OUR TESTIMONIALS SPEAK VOLUMES

Dreams Agency has many clients who are both loyal and longstanding.

From supplying Santa's to leading high street names including John Lewis and Next, event and hospitality staff to assist at sporting events such as Wimbledon and Royal Ascot, exhibition and sales staff to promote the latest canine products at Crufts, and car park marshals working at some of Amazon's largest distribution centres, our work is as diverse as our customers!

Whilst our work might be diverse, there is a definite commonality between the many positive testimonials we receive. Their message might be the same, but that doesn't stop us appreciating them and sharing the fabulous feedback with our UK wide teams!

We used your agency for staffing at the Adidas store over the weekend and were really impressed with their service! Many thanks, Izzy.

Your staff were great! Really helpful and proactive and helped make the day go like a dream. Please pass on our thanks to them. Best wishes, Helen

The staff were absolutely fantastic. The best group we've ever had from Envisage Promotions, I'd say! Thanks for all of your help, George

MEET THE TEAM : KIRA, THE HUSKITA

Every month the internal team at Dreams HQ gets bigger and bigger, so to ensure you can put a familiar face to the name, we like to focus on a member of staff.

This month it's the turn of everyone's favourite office buddy Kira, the office dog.

At Dreams, we love all animals and especially dogs, and as such we're proud to announce that we are supporting the 8 Below Husky Rescue charity.

We've worked regularly with numerous clients at Crufts and dog charities hold a special place in our hearts as our own office dog Kira is a rescue adopted back in March 2014. She's a 'Huskita' which is a cross between a Siberian Husky and an Akita, and a valued member of the Envisage team who spends most of her day either snoozing or announcing the arrival of an office delivery!
